Japan, Ita People and Customs. Just now Japan and everything relating to it is of great Interest to everyone, and perhaps there is no more vivid way of picturing it than by means of the stereopticon. An exhibition of slides, the majority of which are beautifully colored, is to be given in St. Thomas' parish building Saturday at 3 o'clock and again at 4:30 as already so many tickets have been sold it would be impossible to seat all at one time. A Jepanese tea room decorated by Mr. Tozo Takayanngi, 160 Fifth avenue, New York, will be one of the attrac-tions. It will be opened at 2:30 and tea will be served after 3:30 by young ladies in Japanese costumes. In Japan the tea houses, or cha yas, are numberless. Travelers go in and partake of the sokwa, showing their gratitude for the refreshment by the sen they leave on the waiter. A tea ceremonial set of fourteen pieces, vases, bowls, jars, Japanese dolls and flowers will be on sale. The celebrated Ronin Fairy Tales can be obtained and an address on manners by Prof. Morse, in which the Japanese people receive a due amount of praise for their inborn po-liteness in comparison with the manners of many other nations. There will also be a cake table. Admittance 15 cents. This includes the tea room.

Killed the BIIL

Albany, N. Y., April 26 .- In the sente this afternoon the assembly bill reorganizing the New York city common school system, which was drafted by the assembly committee on publication was reported adversely, and the report was agreed to by a vote of 21 to 6, thus killing the bill.

Funeral of Mrs. William Neely. The funeral of Mrs. Rosanna Neely mother of William Neely, the dry goods merchant, took place yesterday morning. After services at her late residence, 46 Park street, the further services were held at St. John's (R. C.) church, where a solemn requiem high mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock. Rev. Father Sullivan celebrated the mass. Rev. Father Curtin was deacon, Rev. Th. mas DeWitt Cuyler cup was award- Father Walsh sub-deacon, and Rev. Father Hartigan master of ceremonies, Rev. Fathers Russell and Higgins were also in the chancel. Upon the casket were a cross of ivy and a sheaf of wheat -offerings from the son of the deceas-

The music was well rendered and very effective, Miss May Sullivan sang ar "Ave Marie" at the offertory, and "Thy Will be Dene" was rendered by a quar-tot consisting of Prof. Charles Bonney, Miss Sullivan, Miss Daniker and ex-Judge Callahan.

The bearers were Messrs, J. D. Plunkett, W. E. Malley, Colonel J. G. Healy, Michael Dillon, D. S. Gamble and E. A. The ushers were J. F. McHugh, M. A. W. McGrath and B. J. Dillon.

Malley, Neely & Co.'s store was closed resterday morning in respect to the nemory of the deceased. The interment vas in St. Lawrence cemetery, Mrs. Neely was born in County Freaugh, Ireland, came to this country and settled in New Jersey, where her children were born. She afterward lived in New York and came to New Haven several years ago.

Mrs. Neely possessed unusual ability and force of character. Her distin-guishing characteristic was her strong sense of duty, a quiet devotion to those she loyed and an unostentatious relig-ious form and boundless charity, and the poor and the orphans have lost in her a generous benefactor. Mrs. Neely was for many years widow, was always the most affection ate of mothers, and in return received from her only son, William Neely, and the late Mrs. Matthew Reilly and her little granddaughter, Louise Neely, a devotion that rendered her life a most happy one. The same unselfishness that characterized all her life was ap-parent toward the last, and it was her wish that friends be requested to kindly omit flowers at her funeral, She was a devoted Catholic, formerly an attendant at St. Mary's and more recently a member of St. John's

Three Suits Settled.

Providence, April 25.-Three of the suits by sufferers of the Lionsdale accident in January, 1893, against the New York, New Haven and Hartford rail-road company have been settled. Each of the complainants, Florence McGow-an, May McGowan and Joseph Mc-Knight, sued for $20,000. The terms of ettlement are not known.
